NOTE: As of 01-19-07, the Administrative Office of the United States Courts takes the position that conversion from chapter 12 to chapter 11 or chapter 13 can arguably be seen as provided for by 11 U.S.C. § 1208(e) due to split case law. Our judges have determined to address any questions which may arise on this subject in the context of actual cases. The AO has indicated to the clerk that a fee should be charged for a debtor's motion to convert from chapter 12 to chapter 11 in the amount of $800 (figured as the difference between current fees for chapters 11 and 12, $1,000 - $200), and that a fee should be charged for a debtor's motion to convert from chapter 12 to chapter 13 in the amount of $35 (figured as the difference between current fees for chapters 13 and 12, $235 - $200). See item #10 in the AO 12-07-06 memo to clerks which is attached to the "Guidelines for Conversion of Cases" posted on the court's website (www.nmcourt.fed.us/usbc).
